Senior Disorientation

On a warm May evening, six bus-loads of seniors departed from Wheaton College with no idea where they were going. At 9:30pm, they arrived at Good Time in Somerville, MA. Equipped with Laser Tag, Go-Karts, pool tables, an arcade, and most importantly, a fully stocked bar, a surprisingly good time was had by all!

2006

Congratulations to Ansyd, for being so consistent, determined and well organized. We are very proud of you and your achievements. As you know the reward for good work is more work. So we expect that you are going to focus even more, so that you may be well prepared for whatever the future holds. Live a life of gratitude for the countless you may never again encounter who contributed to your formation.

Never settle for mediocrity in the career that you will carve out for yourself. Be exemplary to your peers rather than following them blindly. "From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded" Luke 12:48b. So go and be the catalyst in the world of negativity, inconsistency, indecency and immorality. But above all, remain in the company of Jesus our Lord and Savior who empowers everyone to accomplish all things. We love you and pledge our support.

Wow! The Wheaton experience is over. You have spent your time wisely and accomplished so much. It takes hard work and determination to double major and swim all four years. You are a beautiful and intelligent woman who makes us so proud and grateful to have you as our daughter. We know you will do well in law school and can't wait to have you as the first lawyer in the family. We love you very much and we hope your future is everything you want it to be.

"How time flies! One day Clara is a smiling, sunny baby with a halo of unruly curls, the next an accomplished young woman. From early days Clarabel (as she quickly became and has remained) was a great communicator, full of life and always there to help or mediate a problem - "the family glue" we called her. Now all that has blossomed into a grown-up Clara who can't wait to help the world become a better place.

"Congratulations to our beloved daughter and sister on her graduation - we are bursting with pride!"

Words are so inadequate when it comes to telling you of how much we love you and of what an absolute joy it has been to watch you grow - and now graduate from college. We are truly blessed to have you as our daughter and we are so very proud of all your accomplishments - and especially of the kind, caring, responsible, determined, and confident young woman you are. In the blink of an eye you have gone from a beautiful little girl to a beautiful young woman. You have filled our hearts with tremendous joy and you are truly a special person. Always stay strong and keep following your dreams - you are almost there. May your life be filled with the endless happiness and love that you so deserve.

To my darling Kate-

from the day you were born you have shown such integrity and maturity. I am so proud of your accomplishments, the greatest of which are your citizenship award at Pine Cobble and your Meus Honor Stat recognition at MHS, and now your college graduation.

Here's to the most fabulous future!

Darling Julie,

These last four years have flown by so quickly, I can hardly believe it.
The memory of our many trips to different colleges is still fresh in my mind. So is the memory of the day you decided that Wheaton was
'the one.'

I know you have studied hard, enjoyed your classes and professors, and done remarkably well. I am impressed at your ability to have had several jobs and still manage to have great grades. You have made wonderful friends, and have had unique experiences that will stay in your heart and your mind forever. Your semester in Australia and earlier travel to Italy are only the beginning of wonderful adventures which await you.

I am proud of the mature, independent, and creative young woman you have become. Someone who truly thinks for herself; someone with a passion for life and for the amazing possibilities it holds. I am lucky to have been blessed with such a wonderful daughter.

Congratulations on your graduation. May your future be bright and may all your dreams come true.

All my love,

Mom

MARIO

To put meaning in one's life may end in madness,
But life without meaning is the torture
Of restlessness and vague desire --
It is a boat longing for the sea and yet afraid.
Edgar Lee Masters

With all my love, the little...

Dear Mario,

We are very proud of you on your accomplishments and graduation. We wish you the best in all your endeavors. Don't forget to give thanks to Lord for your triumphs and trials. May the Lord always keep you and bless you.

God Bless You

Congratulations and thanks for bringing so much joy into my life, my baby boy!
I love you, Mom

To Jessica,

"Ten Things to Keep in Mind to make your life a little better~

1. Trust Your Instincts

If it doesn't feel right, it probably isn't....fun, tempting...maybe, but not right.

2. Remember your manners

It doesn't cost you anything, but it speaks volumes about who you are. Having class starts with this.

3. Never let possessions "Own" you

It's just stuff! The most valuable things in life-friends, respect, love, knowledge-don't cost money.

4. Nurture Your Friendships

The investment you make in true friends will pay huge dividends all your life-remember, you can't make an old friend.

5. Keep your hands clean

This is meant both literally and figuratively...it will save you a lot of regrets later.

6. Believe in yourself

You do happen to be the only you in existence, and you're also the only person in the world who can truly hold you back in life

7. Be grateful

Don't waste all your todays in anticipation of some grand tomorrow. Now is all we've got. Live in it!

8. Treat others in the way you want to be treated

Because you're smarter or richer or prettier than someone else doesn't mean you're better. It just means you've been more blessed.

9. Always keep playing

Who says adults have to give up toys? Keep the little kid inside you alive...is keeps your imagination primed. Silly is good!

10. No matter what, you will always be LOVED

You don't have to test this one...just carry it around in your back pocket, and know that, no matter what, you can always come home!

If you can only remember one-----Remember you are loved!!!!"

Love you bunches,

Mom, Dad & Emily

Congratulations Beth!

Dahlia

If we reflect simply but deeply on what you taught us about art, we realize that beauty is in the eye of the beholder and not determined by a critic or a curator.

The flower on this page is beautiful. The effect is immediate, without a need for a narrative or explanation.

This is how it is for us when we think of you: beautiful, smart, resourceful, artistic and compassionate. You are very easy to love.

Now that you are graduating from college, we want you to know, once again, how much we love you and how wonderful it is to have you in our lives.

Be successful and safe on all the roads you choose to follow, near or far.

Congratulations on all your accomplishments
With lots of love and wishes of success,

Mom, Dad, Elan, Allie, Heather, Jason, Eric, Grandma Leah

Two flowers may have different petals
One may grow east, the other west
In a bed, one may stand taller than the other
But assured you should rest

Each flower, though different in appearance
And may need different types of care
They grow from the same place
And always work better in a pair
